

School for Life children won a second prize in football and Takraw tournaments

On the 26th of June, the sports tournaments were held in “Chonlapratanpataek School” in Doi Saket District, Chiang Mai Province as part of the “To Be Number One” campaign. These activities are held every year as a nationwide campaign against illegal drugs.

HRH Princess Ubol Ratana Rajakanya launched the “To be Number One” campaign. The theme: You can only be the best, if you are not using drugs.

In this context, young people are urged to spend their free time fruitfully, so that they would not turn to drug abuse.

The activities were football, volleyball and Takraw tournaments. Takraw is footvolley using a rattan ball, only allowing players to use their feet, knee, chest and head to touch the ball. Five schools in Doi Saket District joined the activities.

The School for Life children won a second prize in football and Takraw tournaments.

Sports are a great way for kids to have fun, stay fit, improve skills, and make friends. Playing sports can teach many life lessons – valuing teamwork, overcoming challenges, controlling emotions, taking pride in accomplishments.

Hence, the children could carry out the Center for Body & Soul, one of the seven Centers of Excellence in School for Life, by participating in the tournaments.

School for Life would like to thank Step Foundation in Germany for sponsoring the expenses to take part in the sports event.
